Hurst was not present. Music was furnished by Harvey's Silver Cornet Band and Hackley's colored band. DAYTON, KY .- A man named Chambers, a very gentlemanly appearing person, who has been but a short time a resident of the city, was arrested on

Priday, kept in jail Friday night, and tried before Mayor Joering on Saturday on a charge of abstracting money from the drawer of Mr. Barrett's greeery. It seems that this has been going on for some time, Chambers going into the store and calling for mik, and while Mrs. Barrett went for the milk he went for the drawer. Convinced of the way things were going, Mrs. Barrett got Mrs. Gaston to keep an eye on the cash-drawer Friday morning, and the thelt was detected. He pleaded guilty, and was fined $40 and costs, which he promptly paid
